- ★ For four consecutive years the bulls in the Illinois State Sale have averaged over $ 600.00
- ★ For four consecutive years the top ten head have averaged at or near $ 1,000.00
- ★ It takes good cattle to make such a record. Your best buying bet is to go where the good ones are sold year after year.

It Takes Good Cattle

This message is meant for the busy rancher or farmer who doesn't have time to waste traveling to sales where there are just one or two good ones. Best way to avoid that is to go where the good ones are . . . to a sale that has proved over the years its capacity to come up with a big selection of the top kind.

And For Those Who Like To Buy A Top One . . . .

Now for you who like to buy a top one and still have to watch the pocketbook very carefully . . . last year 22 head (over half) sold in the $500 or below bracket, and they were far better than the $500 and below kind in fence corner affairs. They were good ones suffering because they were traveling in fast company.

Best Pair at the 1964 Illinois Shorthorn Ass'n show and sale were consigned by Fernwood Farm, Barrington, Illinois. The bull was grand champion and top-seller at $2,100 to Wayne Farnum, Victor, Iowa. The female was reserve champion and top female at $1,150 to Penningroth Brothers, Wellman, Iowa. Jean Gavin presents the T. W. Gavin Memorial Trophy to Howard Bell of Fernwood.
